PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

U.S. Probation Officer of the Court, Sharla M. Koch, alleges the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervised release.

Violation Type	Nature of Noncompliance
---------------------------	--------------------------------

SC	The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
----	--

On December 31, 2018, the Rio Rancho Police Department responded to the defendant's home regarding an alleged domestic dispute between him and his girlfriend. It was reported the defendant had barricaded himself in their home. The defendant eventually surrendered to the responding officers and he was observed to be visibly intoxicated. There was no evidence of a domestic dispute, thus the defendant was not arrested.

The maximum statutory penalty: 5 years imprisonment; 5 years to life supervised release.
The revocation range of imprisonment: 6 to 12 months.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on 01/03/2019.
